

q win: TWO GREAT READS

We highlighted these two amazing books in last month's Q Magazine. This month, we give you the chance to have a copy of each for yourself.

KALGOORLIE SYNOPSIS

James and Miceal globe trot the world. Fate crosses their path. Mystery and a bit of mayhem see them meeting up with General Knowles. This leads to them hooking up with Alice, a rather tough old girl. Blake and John enter the story early on and form part of the core of the team. James and Miceal's love story grows and grows. Alice meets the love of her life, Ceila. General Knowles is Ceila's commander-in-chief. Knowles allows it to happen after assigning Ceila on a mission with Alice, turning a blind eye to the blossoming romance. A few shoot outs and car chases expose the key guilty parties, raking in millions of US dollars through fraud and money laundering. Once the story breaks, all hell breaks loose.

ROMA SYNOPSIS

James and Miceal head to Rome for a holiday after the stressful time in the field of journalism outing some serious criminals and making some life time friends. An innocent party sets James's red alerts alight. A few mobile calls and the Australian team and Knowles are en route. The Italian Mafia are no roll over. Game on to find Capo di Tuti. Human beings are not there to be abused and not on a sexual level. They spring into step. The rest is a trail of intrigue as they uncover Capo di Tuti, the head of the Mafia.

For further information, please go to <https://www.dsliot.com>

To try your hand at winning one of the ten copies - 5 of each - we have up for grabs, email getfree@qmagazine.com.au with d.s. Eliot in the subject line.

